

I think Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election is a clear example of how large companies control rather than impart news (etc).

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and so should not be allowed to wield such power.

Thank you.